Private Remote Sensing License: Public Summary

On 5 September 2012, the Commercial Remote Sensing Regulatory Affairs Office of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, an agency of the Department of Commerce, granted a license to Cosmogia Inc., now known as Planet Labs Inc., to operate a private, commercial, space-based, remote sensing system named "Dove 3" and "Dove 4". Both satellites are licensed to collect images of the Earth and will undertake an experimental mission in a 597 km by 800 km and a 700 km circular orbit, respectively, at an inclination of 97.8 degrees.
